Associate members shall be those persons who already have been elected to active membership in a chapter of this Association and, while in good standing in said chapter, who apply for associate or secondary membership in another chapter. Such associate members shall be elected by chapter executive boards in the manner provided in the case of active members. They shall be entitled upon election to all rights claimed by the active members except the right to vote and to hold office. Associate members shall not by election to such membership be considered in any way to have gained a second membership in the International Right of Way Association.
